

New York Beacon

salutes the National Urban Health Conference

Sponsored by

Black History Month

Feb. 23rd thru Feb. 26th

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

1. (L to R) Hon. Hazel Dukes, President NAACP NY State Conference receives the first Dr. Muriel Petioni Award from Karen Witherspoon, Vice President, The City College of New York, and Patricia Ricketts, Vice President of The Greater Harlem Chamber of Commerce at CCNY reception 2. (c) – Hon Donna Christensen, Congresswoman, US Virgin Islands and Asthma Conference Keynote Speaker, receives National Public Service Award from conference co-chairpersons Dr. Lisa S. Coico, President, The City College of New York and (r) - Dr. Jo Ivey Boufford, President, New York Academy of Medicine 3.(L to R) Mwisa Chisunka, NY State Dept. of Taxation & Finance, Desiree Watson, Wellness Interactive and Laura A. Rogers, LAS Financial address the conference of Women's Financial Health 4. (L to R) Dr. Orlando Adamson, Dr. Aubrey Clarke and Dr. Zafar Sharif address Men's Health at Harlem Hospital 5. Denise Soares, RN, MA Executive Director, Harlem Hospital Center welcomes the attendess to the Men's Health Conference 6. Hon. Darryl Towns, Commissioner and CEO NYS Homes and Community Renewal addresses the Asthma Conference at CCNY 7. Chief Philip Banks NYPD, addresses the conference of Youth Violence at A.C. Powell Jr. State Building 8. (L to R) Maria Rios, Jewish Board of Family and Children Services, Janet Wise Thomas, Harlem Hospital and Margo Williams, Harlem Hospital address the subject of Domestic Violence 9. Darwin Davis, Exec. Board Member, The Greater Harlem Chamber of Commerce welcomes the audience to the Asthma Conference at CCNY. By all accounts the 4 Day Conference was a tremendous success.

These are just a sample of some of the great images captured during the 2nd Annual Urban Health Conference For more 2012 images and info call us at (212) 862-7200 or visit us at www.greaterharlemchamber.com

Like us on Facebook & Follow us on twitter